October 1, 2020

Revolutionary Product Offers Peace of Mind in an Uncertain Time

ORLANDO, FL. – OCTOBER 1, 2020 – VOXX Electronics Corporation (VEC), a wholly-owned subsidiary of VOXX International Corporation (NASDAQ: VOXX), is proud to announce the launch of Auto Oxide®, an EPA registered (EPA Registration No. 10324-63-63838) disinfectant effective for neutralizing multiple viruses including SARS-CoV-2 the cause of COVID-19. Today, protecting your employees and customers is now more important than ever, provide peace of mind during these challenging times with a safe multi-surface cleaning solution.

Auto Oxide, a surface sanitizer is safe to use on all surfaces (even food) to kill 99.999% of viruses such as Coronavirus, Influenza, Norovirus, H1N1, Coronavirus, Hepatitis A, B & C, and RSV by eliminating the source. Great for upholstery, carpets, mats, and auto interiors this odor-free spray also eliminates odors due to smoke, trash, mold, and more.

"Our dealers, customers, and consumers come first, and with that comes their health. These days clean work areas are now more important than ever and VOXX is proud to bring Auto Oxide to the U.S. market. Having a solution that is registered with the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and contains no volatile organic compounds (VOCs), is a major win for our dealers as they are able to offer their customers a clean vehicle on return," said Aron Demers, Senior Vice President, VOXX Electronics Corporation.

Auto Oxide was specifically designed and tested for vehicle interiors and will not harm cloth, leather, suede, vinyl or other special materials.
