Acoustic Research Launches 360-degree Portable Speaker with Qi Charging Capability

LAS VEGAS, NV– JANUARY 6, 2020 – LVCC – CENTRAL HALL BOOTH 13506 – VOXX Accessories Corporation (VAC), a wholly-owned subsidiary of VOXX International Corporation (NASDAQ: VOXX), announced today that its Acoustic Research brand has unveiled a new 360-degree portable speaker named the Grip, with Qi charging capability.

The Grip gives you a 360-degree wide-range of sound in a powerful and great sounding portable speaker that lets you enjoy music wirelessly from your smartphone or tablet. The speaker allows for up to 20 hours of playtime from the rechargeable battery and with the built-in Qi charger, you can wirelessly charge your smartphone, so you never have to worry about losing power during one of your dance parties. The Grip can be paired with another speaker to surround yourself with dynamic stereo sound to keep the party bumping for hours.

“We continue to improve and expand our collection of Bluetooth speakers and other audio solutions, so we can cater to every listener’s needs, no matter the occasion. The new Grip speaker provides a unique spherical design with 360-degrees of sound for everyone to enjoy, as well as a pad for your cell phone with the built-in Qi charging capability. Now listeners never have to worry about draining out their cellphone battery while enjoying the music,” said Ian Geise, President, VOXX Accessories Corporation.

The Grip (SPQ820) will be available this summer at Amazon for an MSRP of $69.99.
